A Challenge for Trinity Church

As I write this, Trinity is preparing for an exciting experience on Wednesday evening, May 2, and by the time you read this, it will already have happened. We have high hopes for Wednesday and we hope you have made plans to be a part of the evening.

As we've heard from Chad Hardy on Sunday mornings and in our e-mail newsletter over the past few weeks, Wednesday evening will bring not only a parish dinner at 5:30, but also a Poverty Simulation from 6:30 to 8:30 in the Undercroft. The Poverty Simulation is an experiential learning tool that will expose Trinity parishioners to the real life struggles of the working poor in our community.

Why are we doing this, and why is this a challenge for Trinity Church? In 2011, our diocese awarded a Human Hurt and Hope Grant to Children First/Communities in Schools. This Buncombe County program targets the Emma School community in West Asheville and has initiated a number of efforts to enrich the lives of these students and their families. Trinity's Outreach Committee has selected this program as its 2012 focus, inspired by the work of All Souls Cathedral to support it through food drives, book drives, and camp scholarships. The Outreach Committee hopes that through the education provided in the Wednesday evening program, Trinity parishioners will also be inspired to support Children First/Communities and Schools as we develop our own projects.

And there are other opportunities to learn about the Emma School community: Mind the Gap bus tours take us to the neighborhood to see what's going on there first hand. I'm going on May 17. Will you join me by calling Jane Exner at 259-9717 to make a reservation?

Trinity Church has a proud tradition of initiating efforts to support those in need in Asheville, and our Outreach Committee hopes that Wednesday evening will begin yet another such effort. I hope that our next issue of Tidings will report parishioners' reactions to the Wednesday program and initial plans for implementing what we've learned. And what a gift to give our new rector! How great to demonstrate that we've not been standing still during this time of transition, but that Trinity is looking to the future, challenging ourselves in new ways to continue living out our faith in the days ahead.

Summer Worship Service Schedule

Beginning Sunday, June 3 through Sunday, September 2

8:00 a.m. and 10:00 a.m.

Trinity men, do you know....

Men's Friday morning prayer and Bible study group begins a study of the origin of the Nicene Creed this Friday, April 20, at 7:30 am. Did Constantine choose the books of the Bible? What were the competing ideas about Jesus, the Church, scriptures? Why is the creed stated in such detail? Are we in danger of becoming a church without a doctrine? Come help us figure it out. For more information call Ingram Parmley at 274-4646, e-mail ingramparmley@charter.net.

Dear Trinity Family,

The Trinity Art Guild is collaborating with The Preservation Society of Asheville and Buncombe County in celebration of national "Preservation Month" (May, 2012). This year's theme as designated by the National Trust for Historic Preservation is "Discovering America's Hidden Gems".

Our own beloved Trinity Church certainly qualifies as one of those hidden gems and we are honored to be so designated and to have the opportunity to share our treasure with the general public.

On Saturday, May 19th at 2:00, we will be "Opening our Doors" for a program and tours which highlight architecture, art, history, music and gardens.

We hope you will plan to attend and more importantly please spread the word to your friends and neighbors so they can discover our "treasure" as well.

If you are interested in serving as a docent on May 19th please e-mail or call Sally Cochran: sallycochran@charter.net – 828-545-9402.

The Art Guild hopes to see many Trinitarians on this historical day and thanks you in advance for helping make the day a great success!

Clothing Closet Needs

Our homeless congregation at Church of the Advocate's most urgent need at the moment is for blankets and shoes, especially sneakers and sandals. Our men also need shorts, underwear, large and extra-large T-shirts, belts, and hoodies. Our women are well supplied except for underwear, casual dresses, sneakers and sandals, and bags. We always need sleeping bags, backpacks, and totes. Thanks so much for all that you do.

Who is graduating From high school or college this year?

Youth Sunday will be observed on Sunday, May 13th. We will recognize our young people and seniors on that day. We would like to know who is graduating from high school or college this year so we can publish this information in Tidings and bulletin. Please e-mail the following to Mary Summersette at mary@trinityasheville.org: name of student, graduating from, college attending, or other plans in the fall.

Thanks,
Debbie Cox

Camp Henry Day

Camp Henry Day is Sunday, May 6th, in the Diocese of WNC. The loose offering all over the diocese will go to Camp Henry scholarships. Camp Henry is one of the most important diocese ministries for our children and youth. Each summer over 500 children attend Camp Henry. This is such an important part of our faith formation for the youth of our diocese that we have dedicated the first Sunday in May to celebrate this ministry. Trinity has over 40 children and youth who participate in this ministry. Children and youth of Trinity please wear Camp Henry t-shirt to church on May 6th at the 10:45 am service to celebrate the day!

Thanks,
Debbie Cox

Youth Sunday/Acolyte and Sunday School Recognition

Youth Sunday/Acolyte and Sunday School Recognition is Sunday, May 13th, during the 10:45 pm service. Trinity will give special recognition to our seniors from high school, acolytes and Sunday school teachers. Anna Day Mainolfi will give the homily during the service. Please plan to join us to celebrate the ministries and accomplishments of Trinity's youth and adults.
